Apostolic Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Hymn of Praise

This is the Feast (Refrain & v.3 – all; v. 1 – women; v. 2 – men

Prayer of the Day

O Lord God, we bring before you the cries of a sorrowing world. In your mercy set us free from the chains that bind us, and defend us from everything that is evil, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

Michelle Pride—Feed My People

Children's Time (Noisy Offering for Feed My People)

First Reading: Isaiah 65:1–9

<sup>1</sup>I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask,
to be found by those who did not seek me.

I said, "Here I am, here I am,"
to a nation that did not call on my name.

<sup>2</sup>I held out my hands all day long
to a rebellious people,
who walk in a way that is not good,
following their own devices;

<sup>3</sup>a people who provoke me
to my face continually,
sacrificing in gardens
and offering incense on bricks;

<sup>4</sup>who sit inside tombs,
and spend the night in secret places;
who eat swine's flesh,
with broth of abominable things in their vessels;

<sup>5</sup>who say, "Keep to yourself,
do not come near me, for I am too holy for you."

These are a smoke in my nostrils,
a fire that burns all day long.

<sup>6</sup>See, it is written before me:
I will not keep silent, but I will repay;

I will indeed repay into their laps
<sup>7</sup>their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together,
says the Lord;

because they offered incense on the mountains
and reviled me on the hills,
I will measure into their laps
full payment for their actions.

<sup>8</sup>Thus says the Lord:
As the wine is found in the cluster,
and they say, "Do not destroy it,
for there is a blessing in it,"
so I will do for my servants' sake,
and not destroy them all.

<sup>9</sup>I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
and from Judah inheritors of my mountains;
my chosen shall inherit it,
and my servants shall settle there.

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thanks be to God!

Second Reading: Galatians 3:23–29

<sup>23</sup>Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. <sup>24</sup>Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, <sup>26</sup>for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. <sup>27</sup>As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. <sup>28</sup>There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thanks be to God!

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,

Gospel: Luke 8:26–39

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>26</sup>Then Jesus and his disciples arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup>As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup>When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me"—<sup>29</sup>for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) <sup>30</sup>Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. <sup>31</sup>They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

<sup>32</sup>Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

<sup>34</sup>When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. <sup>35</sup>Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. <sup>37</sup>Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. <sup>38</sup>The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>"Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Joyful Defiance

Daughter of Grace to converse about new book, Joyful Defiance: Death Does Not Win the Day.

Anna Madsen attended Grace, (confirmed in 1984) when her father, George Madsen, was a pastor here. She is now a theologian who lives in Minnesota's north woods and has written a book processing the tragic death of her husband and the trauma that followed. The publisher says:

"The challenge is to acknowledge death in its manifold forms and own one's indignation and grief, and yet transcend it so that even if we are angry, we do not become anger. This book names the tension between grief and hope, acknowledges the reality of both, and defines a path forward to a life of joyful defiance. That path runs through Holy Saturday, a day that has one foot in the fear, grief, and death of Good Friday while the other is in Easter, a day of hope, freedom, life, and joy."

The Grace book club invites you to join us on Monday, July 18th at 2pm, either via Zoom or with Pastor Phil at Grace as he takes care of the technology for you.

The church office has placed the order for books, but if you would still like to the discussion, you can purchase copies on Amazon or through Dotters Books (715-829-0468) a local, independent bookseller.

Noisy Offering

Make a Joyful Noise! Let's make some noise on Sunday, June 19 with a Noisy Offering! The children of Grace will gather loose change from our pockets and purses during our worship service. Dollar bills will also be accepted, although they don't make as much noise when dropped into the collection cans!

This special offering goes to Feed My People to help those in need. From helping children through school food pantries and the Weekend Kids Meal Program to helping Seniors with resident food pantries, Feed My People helps people who struggle with food insecurities.

Make some noise and help our neighbors in need. Thank You!

Mission Focus Conversations

Dreaming

Yesterday while visiting a member in her apartment, she gave me one of those Dove chocolates that have messages inside the wrapper. Mine said:

"Don't do all your dreaming when you are asleep!"

That is a good way to describe what we are doing in our process with Pastor Erin Nelson to have a clearer sense of how we serve God in this time and place.

At the heart of the process is listening and being attentive to those around us and what God may have to say through them. The eighteen of us present were given some options for homework to gather some of the direction we need for the next session:

We agreed to do Dwelling in the Word on Exodus 16 in the June 26th worship service, with the crafters, and I believe with the council. We listen to the passage with our spirits open to hear:

1. what words God pushes in our direction that really stand out for us
2. what new questions stir in us as we listen and
3. is there any direction that each of us hears from God for the process we are engaging in.

We also have questions with different kinds of people:

- Members of the congregation about when God has been especially present to them in their life and what the church had to do with that.
- Non-church going folks about where they see God moving in their life.
- Leaders in the community about the needs that they see in our area and the gifts people have which are in search of a place to use them.

Finally, we were invited to walk our neighborhood with another member and pay attention to what you notice and what that says about the place where Grace is located.

If you are interested in doing any of these tasks, Pastor Phil will coach you and give you a hand out. If you would like to hear what others have discovered, the next meeting is Wednesday, July 6th at 6pm in the Parlours.

I am excited about dreaming together about what Jesus is calling us to do in this time. The energy feels good and the more participating the merrier we will be!

Pastor Phil
